

The Year 3 Writer

At the end of year 3, a writer should:

- Write in paragraphs
- Punctuate sentences accurately.
- Begin to use commas for complex sentences.
- Use time adverbs e.g. then, next, soon.
- Use prepositions e.g. before, after, during, in.
- Use more sophisticated connectives in compound and complex sentences e.g. although, whilst, after, before, so.
- Use varied vocabulary.
- Use inverted commas to punctuate speech.
- Join my letters correctly.
- Use headings and sub headings in non-fiction writing.